

ARTICLE APPEARED
ON PAGE A6

THE BALTIMORE SUN
23 October 1978

CIA to defy Harvard

Adm. Stansfield Turner, the CIA director, said yesterday he will not comply with a Harvard University ban on covert recruiting of foreign students as agents. "If we were required to abide by the rules of every corporation, every academic institution, it would become impossible to do the required job for our country," he said on CBS's Face the Nation, adding: "Harvard does not have any legal authority over us."

CIA 1.01 Turner
Adm.
Orig 1 HARVARD U
Soc 4.01.3 Face
the NATION